NEW BRAUNFELS, TEXAS

Located in the Heart of Texas

In 1845, Prince Solms of Braunfels, Germany decided to call the heart of the Texas Hill Country home. The town of New Braunfels blossomed amidst the beautiful surrounding landscapes, and a strong cultural influence saturated throughout the charming town and its people. Since then, New Braunfels has maintained its heritage while continuing to prosper and grow.

New Braunfels is located in the heart of Central Texas, 45 miles southwest of Austin and 30 miles northeast of San Antonio. The population is over 58,000 citizens, who enjoy local attractions such as the number one waterpark in the country, Schlitterbahn, Gruene Hall and the peaceful Comal and Guadalupe Rivers.

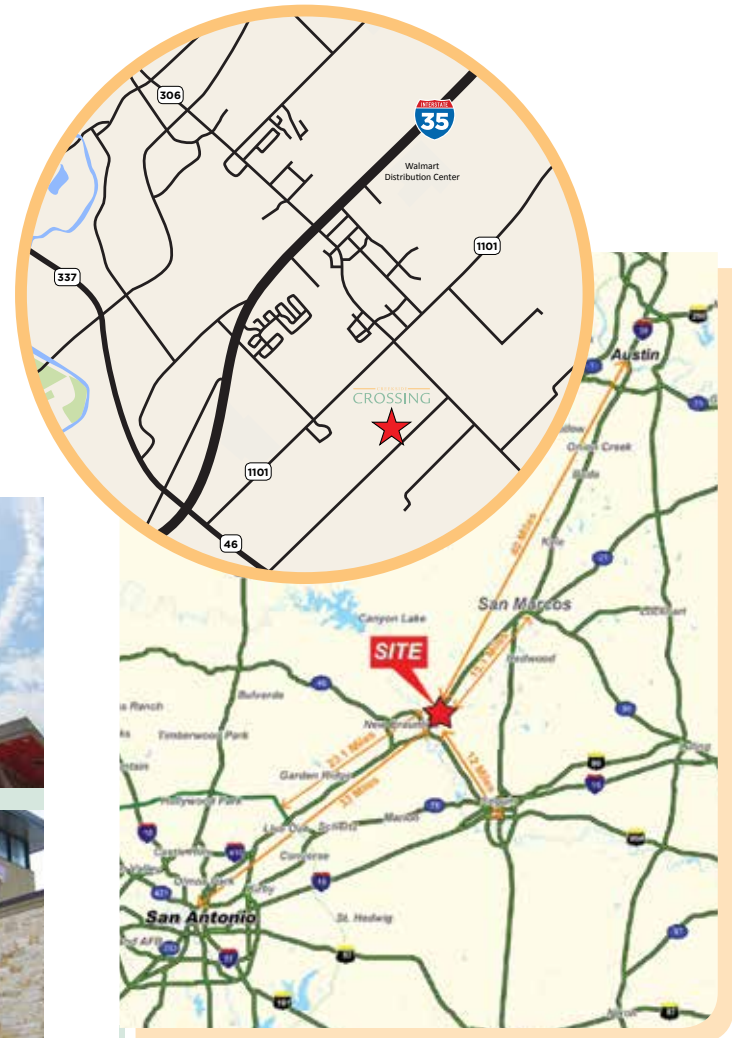

With annual events such as, Wurstfest, the Comal County Fair, Wassailfest, and Wein & Saengerfest, New Braunfels is sure to capture the interests of anybody!

CREEKSIDE AREA

Strategically Located in the "Texas Triangle"

Centrally located for convenience, Creekside has immediate access to IH 35, and is located only 15 miles from IH 10, with local trade areas including the second and fifth fastest growing counties in the state of Texas. This area serves as the gateway to New Braunfels, Canyon Lake, Gruene, and the fast-growing New Braunfels Regional Airport.

New Braunfels Town Center at Creekside includes over one million square feet of retail, a medical center, multi-family living developments, and an entertainment complex. The area also offers trails, streams, and fountains. Its no wonder Buc-ee's decided to build the world's largest convenience store here.
